

Operations Support Worker Traineeship

Information Sheet

This traineeship will provide a flexible pathway for individuals and employers to develop fundamental competencies in risk, work health and safety, communication and quality in the context of the work environment with additional technical skills specific to project requirements.

The traineeship will provide work experience / work hardening to equip participants to access further pathways aligned to their interests and regional opportunities.

Training Package Title:	Resources and Infrastructure Industry
Training Package Code:	RII
Qualification Title:	Certificate II in Resources and Infrastructure Work Preparation
Code:	RII20120
Nominal hours:	285 - 300
Nominal term:	12 months

Qualification Overview

The qualification requires completion of 9 units of competency , 4 core and 5 electives.

Core Units of Competency

RIICOM201E	Communicate in the workplace
RIICOM201E	Identify and assess environmental and heritage concerns
RIIRIS201E	Conduct local risk control
RIIWHS201E	Work safety and follow WHS policies and procedures

Link to Qualification details HERE

The traineeship will provide work experience / work hardening to equip participants to access further pathways aligned to their interests and regional opportunities.

Contact your Australian Apprenticeship Support Network Provider now for further information about Traineeships, Apprenticeships and employer incentives available to support your business.

12 months

Exploration Support Roles

Civil Site Works Support

Mine Site Support

Drilling Support

Mineral Processing Support

Resources and Infrastructure - Operations Support Worker Pathways

